INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

WANTED: Undergraduates who have a passion for GLBT equality.

Intern with the Human Rights Campaign Headquarters in Washington, DC!

Founded in 1980, the Human Rights Campaign is the largest national lesbian and gay political organization with nearly 600,000 members throughout the country. HRC works to ensure that lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender Americans can be open, honest and safe at home, at work and in the community. With a national staff, volunteers and members throughout the country, HRC:

- lobbies the federal government on GLBT issues by working with bipartisan allies in Congress and other branches of government
- participates in election campaigns through our political action committee
- works with statewide GLBT organizations to advance equality on the state and local level
- educates the public through the media, our website, publications and other information resources
- organizes volunteers and energizes communities
